Letters Trellis will be back at the Winchester Farmers Market this Saturday, Aug. 16.

During these lazy days of summer, what could be easier than writing a refreshing letter to a friend or loved one?

Stop by, and write your letter on stationery we provide for no cost at our cozy writing table. Envelopes are included and if you write it here, we will put postage on it and mail it that afternoon.

Letters Trellis is presently funded by private donations so all you have to do is bring the postal address, sit down, relax, and write beautiful thoughts.
